

Nash's Numbers by Alan Nash (A95)

I was once asked at 6:45pm "Where can I buy a TV set now ?", my reply was, "You must be desperate to see Eastenders". How many times have you been asked, "What time do the shops shut ?". Well this month's article will enable you, as a Dial-a-Cab driver, to be the envy of all other drivers by having this page to hand.

As I write this article in late September, many stores do not, at this time, know their Christmas opening times. Where possible I have put Christmas closing times in the third column and the dates they start from. Harrods opens on Sundays 12-6pm from 28/11/99 until Christmas. The M&S Pantheon store which backs onto Gt. Marlborough St. gets its name from the fact that it is built on the site of the Pantheon Theatre demolished some sixty years ago.
