

Nash's Numbers

Alan Nash (A95)

I have been asked by other drivers, does it take long to produce this article. In general each item varies, and I try to do it in my office at home in the mornings when I am not working. Sometime the hardest part is obtaining the information in time for publication, (the Editor wants the copy 3 weeks before you get it), often of time sensitive subjects such as the new fare tariff for example. This month should have been simple, a call to Eurostar, fax me the advance timetable, revamp, Bob's your uncle. Not this time, 5 days of answer machines followed by sorry we cannot fax as we have no fax machine ! However you now have the latest arrivals timetable in chronological order of Issue 26, valid 3rd December '00 to 22nd March '01.

Can I ask, is this article the information you want ? If not please read my regular plea at the bottom of the page, don't be shy, tell me what you want.
